

Fan Heat Relief Program

Lumber River Council of Governments – Area Agency on Aging receives funding from Duke Energy Progress through Division of Aging and Adults Services. Providers in Bladen, Hoke, Richmond, Robeson and Scotland counties are provided the funding to assist individuals 60 years of age and older or disabled individuals to have a more comfortable and safe living environment during the summer months. Individuals must have a home situation where extended high temperatures may threaten the person’s health and well-being. The program begins in June of each year.
